Participation and voting rights at the General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting will be conducted with the personal presence of those entitled to participate. Shareholders may participate in the Annual General Meeting in person or through a proxy. OTP Bank Plc. is entitled to check the personal identity of the shareholders and their proxies on the basis of documents, prior to their admission to the Annual General Meeting.

The authorisations relating to representation as a proxy at the Annual General Meeting must comply with the relevant provisions of Hungarian law. original form, or in the form of a copy certified as authentic by a notary public, issued not more than 30 days previously – or a certificate regarding the election of the mayor, as the case may be, must be presented at the venue of the Annual General Meeting. When providing evidence of the existence of companies (and other organisations) registered abroad, and of the right to represent the entity issuing the authorisation, it is essential that the foreign document be issued by a certified public records body or that these facts be attested by a notary public.

If the authorisation or any document submitted as evidence of the representation right was not issued in Hungary, the form of the document must satisfy the legal regulations pertaining to the certification and/or legalisation of documents issued abroad. According to these regulations, in the absence of a bilateral international agreement to the contrary, (I) the diplomatic certification and/or legalisation of the document is needed, or (II) – if the given country is a party to the relevant international convention – the furnishing of the document with an apostille is required. Detailed information on the applicable rules are provided by the Hungarian foreign representation offices. If the document is written in a language other than English or Hungarian, then a certified Hungarian translation of the document must be presented.

The authorisation and the related documents must be handed over by 16:00 p.m. on 12 April 2016 (Tuesday) at the very latest, at any of the designated OTP branches listed under section X below, or – if the proxy, based on a foreign document, is representing more than one shareholder – at the Corporate Secretariat of OTP Bank Plc. Meetings of the Supervisory Board are convened by the chairperson, and the meeting must also be convened if a member of the Supervisory Board or at least two members of the Board of Directors, or the auditor, requests it in writing, indicating the objectives of, and reasons for the meeting.

Minutes are taken of the meetings of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board, and their resolutions are documented. In case of passing resolutions without convening the meeting a summary of resolutions is necessary to be prepared instead of the minutes, which is to be appended to the minutes of the next meeting that follows the written voting.

The employer's rights towards the executive officers of the Company are exercised by the Board of Directors through the Chairman & CEO, with the proviso that the Board of Directors must be notified in advance for the appointment or withdrawal of appointment of deputy CEOs.

Determining the remuneration of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Committee is in the competence of the Company's supreme body, the General Meeting. The principles and frameworks of the long-term remuneration and incentives system for employees in senior positions are also determined by the General Meeting. Accordingly – on the basis of the provisions relating to remuneration policies set forth in the Credit Institutions Act, which complies with the relevant EU directives –

the Bank's Annual General Meeting of 2011, in its resolution no. 9/2011, approved for the first time the principles and rules of the remuneration policy of OTP Bank Plc. and the Bank Group, and the Board of Directors issued the internal regulations and procedures necessary for their implementation, which documents have been amended several times in the past years by the Bank's General Meeting, Board of Directors and as a result of regulatory amendments in 2014, by the Supervisory Board of the Bank. Audit

The main function of the internal audit system is to protect customers, the company's assets and shareholder's interests, as well as to facilitate and monitor operation in compliance with the statutory provisions.

The internal audit system extends to all of the company's organisational units, business lines and activities, including outsourced activities. To ensure effective auditing, the internal audit system is realised on several levels of control built on each other, and segmented by department as well. The elements of the internal audit system are comprised of in-process and management controls, and an independent internal audit organisation and management information system.

The Bank has developed and operates a bank group level, unified internal audit system, which is proportional to the size of the Bank Group and the Company's market share, includes shareholder audits conducted at the foreign and domestic group members as well as the professional oversight of the internal audit organisations of the subsidiaries defined in the Credit Institutions Act as included in the scope of consolidated supervision. Uniform internal audit processes and methodologies are created, continuously developed and implemented in respect of the operation and activities of the bank group members' internal audit organisations. Internal audit also liaises regularly, and cooperates, with external auditing bodies.

The independent internal audit organisation assists in the legally compliant and effective management of assets and liabilities and the protection of property; it supports secure business operation, the effectiveness, cost-efficiency and success of internal control systems, the minimisation of risks, and moreover – alongside the compliance organisation – it detects and reports departures from the provisions of the statutory regulations and internal policies, makes recommendations for the elimination of deficiencies, and monitors the implementation of the measures. It performs its activities independently, objectively and professionally. Its independence is ensured by the fact that it is professionally overseen by the Supervisory Board, within the framework set by the Credit Institutions Act.

The independent internal audit organisation has an annual audit plan which is approved by the Supervisory Board. The annual plan is prepared using a risk-based methodology and, in addition to focusing on the areas that entail regulatory, business and operational risk, and the other main risk exposures, it also takes into account the company's prevailing strategic priorities.

The internal audit organisation makes independent reports on its auditing activities for the management bodies at quarterly and annual intervals. In its quarterly reports it gives a group-level, summary account of the audits conducted in the given quarter, the risks identified in the course of its own audits and audits conducted by the authorities, and the success of any action taken to eliminate them. In exceptional cases that require immediate intervention, it provides the management with extraordinary briefings. It reports annually on the performance of the tasks stipulated in the group-level annual audit schedule, the audits conducted and other activities, and on the circumstances of the organisation's operation, as well as on any changes to the internal audit system.

The internal audit organisation annually prepares, for the Supervisory Board, objective and independent reports in respect of the operation of risk management, internal control mechanisms and corporate governance functions.

The General Meeting has the authority to elect the company performing the audit, and to approve the nomination of the member responsible for the audit.

With trust and responsibility for each other

OTP Bank's social participation in 2015

As one of the largest sponsors of Hungary, OTP Bank donates HUF 1 billion to community development. This support is value-driven and provided with stakeholders and professional partners involved. Committed to long-term cooperation projects, our Bank continued its support programs in 2015.

The focus is still on financial literacy

OTP Bank is committed to improving financial literacy, which, therefore, is in the focus of its social responsibility schemes. As a market leading financial service provider, OTP believes that it must take responsibility for the education of young people and adults capable of making responsible decisions. Accordingly, the purpose of the Bank is to widen financial literacy. OK Educational Centre plays a crucial role in furthering this objective.

OK Project

Qualitative research carried out in 2014 found that the financial education offered by the OK Centre, OTP Bank's financial educational programme, represents an initiative that fills a niche in terms of both form and substance, and as such, it is suitable to act as a catalyst of public thinking about the importance of financial education. Our research confirms that students who have participated in the training sessions are more aware in thinking about matters of finance, economy and financial management.

Originally targeting secondary school students with a specific curriculum, OK Educational Centre, due to the huge success and the large number of people interested in the project, has significantly widened its curriculum and target audience with career training based on self-knowledge elements, and their Sulibank projects targets primary school students. Furthermore, their services have become geographically more accessible via the opening of additional OK Educational Centres.

The Centre is managed by the OTP Fáy András Foundation to ensure its independence and steady professional support. The foundation was established by OTP Bank in 1992 and has since become one of the most significant players in Hungarian financial education. The professional activities of the foundation focus on expanding students' financial, economic and financial management knowledge as well as conscious career planning.

In only 3 years, the institution has offered 30,000 niche-filling and free trainings to students in and outside Hungary. In addition to educating groups of pupils arriving from various parts of the country, the OK Centre is also running a specially equipped mobile teachers' network that travels between secondary schools nationwide.

Another priority of the OTP Fáy András Foundation is to improve financial, economic and financial management awareness and knowledge among the youth in Hungary and the Hungarian populations of the neighbouring countries. After Budapest, the model was implemented in Nyíregyháza and Bucharest in 2014 and then in Slovakia in 2015.

It is an outstanding achievement of OTP Bank's financial education programmes that, to our best knowledge, these programmes reach the largest number of young people in Hungary.

Due to the continuously expanding programs and the results achieved, OTP Bank was recognised three years in a row as the “Most Active Bank Contributing to Developing Financial Literacy” in MasterCard’s competition.

Expanded Model School Programme

The Model School Programme offers a chance for close professional cooperation in Hungary between OTP Bank and the OTP Fáy András Foundation.

The Model School is a priority project of the foundation and grants premium funding to the selected school whose students can participate in all professional programmes of the OK Educational Centre. In addition to financial, economic and management trainings, the institution can also join the bank’s corporate social responsibility programmes. These include various donation programmes, attendance at events, student camps and other educational and leisure programmes as well as increased emphasis on volunteering and environmental awareness. The Secondary School of Buda was the first to join the programme and has been our partner for five academic years. Last years close to 1,200 students from 45 classes of the school attended a full-day financial, business and management training in the OK Educational Centre. In addition, a number of classes attended thematic trainings and joined various charity initiatives.

In 2015, after the Ferenc Deák Secondary Grammar, Economics and IT Vocational School of Jászárokszállás joined the programme, a total of over 1,500 students receive direct assistance in becoming financially literate adults.

Creating opportunities

In addition to improving public financial literacy, creating opportunities is also a focal point in OTP Bank’s CSR endeavours.

Humanity Foundation

Established by OTP Bank and working for 25 years, Humanity Social Foundation is a public benefit organisation. The purpose of the foundation is to offer effective assistance to individuals and communities in need to enable them to resolve their problematic life situation alone and improve the quality of their lives on their own.

The achievements of the Foundation are represented by financial assistance provided to 750 disadvantaged families and individuals over the past 25 years. In addition, college scholarships have so far been awarded to 60 talented, disadvantaged students, many of whom would have been unable to continue their studies without the funding provided by the Foundation.

The scope of activities of the Foundation has significantly been expanded with social tenders. Partial funding for procurement of medicines, medical aids and medical treatment was made available twice to financially disadvantaged persons. As a result, 18 families received financial help.

Health-conscious thinking, prevention and the importance of health screening are key elements of the message the Foundation would like use to reach out to the general public. OTP Bank’s foundation also provided funding to replace the 20+ year-old medical devices of Péterfy Sándor Hospital. Established and funded by OTP Bank, the Humanity Social Foundation donated state-of-the-art ultrasound diagnostics equipment to the Urological Surgery Unit of the Péterfy Sándor Hospital and Trauma Centre.
